THE DACOITS OF BURMAH.

THEY HAVE AGAIN BEGUN THEIR DEPREDATIONS.

They Elude Capture in the Mountains. Boulanger Wants the Presidency. Not the Dictatorship—Notes From Berlin and Other Points in the Old World.

LONDON, April 15.—The news from the east is not very encouraging, especially that from Burmah. The Dacoits have again begun their depredations, and have already made a record of murder and pillage for themselves. In some of the upper districts the Dacoits, assembling in large bands, have attacked military posts, sacked towns and murdered anyone who fell into their hands.

Tales of horror from a few villages on the outskirts of semi-civilization have been related, and it seems as though every Dacoit in India was in arms and possessed the firm determination to do all the harm and commit all the crime they could. At one of the farther military posts they were bold enough to attack the guards, and succeeded in killing four men and wounding others. Detachments of cavalry were sent after the miscreants, but they escaped to one of their mountain fastnesses, and thus eluded capture. Few of these wary warriors have been made captive, while they have committed numberless crimes and outrages.

In one of the remote towns a band of these scoundrels made a raid and got away after killing three men and one or two women and burning several houses. They always plunder and rob in these attacks, but there is no report of their having obtained any considerable booty. Travelers are the especial object of their cupidity, and the Dacoits have in some cases held prisoners for a ransom.

They are very shrewd and cunning in all they do, and many attempts to capture them have proved futile, as they can go where the European soldiers cannot venture, and as for native soldiers they are of very little use when real courage must be the quality used.

Boulanger Interviewed.
PARIS, April 14.—Gen. Boulanger has at last submitted to be interviewed and has declared his aim to be the presidency of the republic, not a dictatorship. He says more-over that he does not favor war, neither France nor Germany wishes. His supporters have issued a manifesto declaring that the general is a Republican; that he will "enter the chamber to maintain a program of democratic reform," and that he "will defend France and the republic."

The Figaro says: "The Orleanists will meet on Saturday at the residence of the Count of Paris at Twickenham, England, to decide upon the advisability of supporting or condemning the union of the sections of the French conservative party who are advocating the cause of Gen. Boulanger."

This implies that the Royalists fear the Boulanger movement may result in the consolidation of a strong radical Republican majority under the general. When asked by the reporter of the Figaro to which party he belongs, he evaded a reply by tossing his knife on the table, saying: "I am like this blade—which way must I go, right or left?" He evidently is playing to secure the support of the dissatisfied elements of all factions.

It is said a French syndicate is negotiating a great Russian loan, and still another rumor has it that the negotiation has been concluded with the imperial commission, d'Escompte. It is suspected that, in order not to impede the negotiation, Russia has manifested little military activity during the past month.

President Carnot has postponed his proposed journey to the south of France.

Premier Flouquet has decided not to make his tour of the departments at present, but will await the debate on the policy of the cabinet.

Thursday a man fired a revolver three times near one of the gates of the Elysee palace where the president lives. When arrested, he said that he wanted President Carnot to attend to his grievance.

A manifesto has been issued to the electors of the Nord, signed by Deputies Laguerre, Susini, Laur, Herisse and Nicholin, protesting against the employment of police and other measures, which they attribute to the government, to prevent the election of Gen. Boulanger.

German News.

BERLIN, April 14.—The North German Gazette, which is one of the official organs, referring to the attacks of the progressist newspapers upon Prince Bismarck for what they term his officious interference in imperial family affairs, says: "Such insinuations make as little impression upon Emperor Frederick as similar criticisms from the same source did upon his deceased father. Prince Bismarck was appointed chancellor of the empire by both that they might receive responsible advice according to his knowledge and conscience. They never doubted that Prince Bismarck would watch over the interests of the imperial dynasty as attentively as over the interests of the country. This confidence stands quite apart from the question whether or not the chancellor remains prime minister. It would have no existence if it were thought possible that the chancellor could belie his connections and act dishonorably towards the emperor in order to remain in office."

Baron Roggenbach will cause a semi-official statement to be issued at Karlsruhe denying that he has any personal pretensions to any official post, not even in the case of Chancellor Bismarck's retirement. The baron upon all occasions has strongly maintained the necessity of keeping Bismarck at the head affairs.

The German journals still continue to play at shuttlecock with Princess Victoria's marriage engagement.

Dr. Mackenzie has ordered another tube for the emperor's throat, which has evinced irritation.

Phelp's Ambition.

LONDON, April 14.—It is the opinion here that United States Minister Phelps has gone to America to look after the vacant chief justiceship, to which he is in expectation of being appointed.

A Russian Powder Factory Explodes.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 14.—A powder factory on the line of the St. Petersburg & Moscow railroad exploded yesterday. Seven persons were killed and many injured.

HE DEFENDED HIMSELF.

A Watchman Attacked By a Gang of Rowdies, Kills Two of His Assailants.

STREUBENVILLE, O., April 14.—Some two months ago Mike Galvin, a saloon keeper at Dennison, shot and killed Charles Conda, a yard brakeman. Conda had been disorderly, and Galvin was deputized to make the arrest, when Conda broke away and Galvin shot. Galvin was arrested for shooting and held in $1,000 bond awaiting the action of the grand jury. Wednesday night, after midnight, John Gow, one of the bondsmen, and several others were in a saloon discussing the matter when a quarrel arose.

William Quillen, a young man nineteen years of age, acting as night watchman of the town, came past the saloon and ordered the quarreling to cease. This changed the quarrel from between themselves to abuse of Quillen. The gang in the saloon followed Quillen to the street, where the abuse became so violent that he arrested one of them. Just as he did so he was knocked down, and the whole gang jumped upon and began kicking him. He drew his revolver and shot three times, each shot taking effect. First shot struck John Gow in the left eye socket, the ball penetrating the brain and causing instant death. The other shots lodged in the brain of Amos Thompson, the first penetrating the right lung and the other the bowels, causing injuries from which he died yesterday. The shooting has created intense excitement, and Quillen immediately gave himself up. The coroner's inquest exonerated Quillen on the ground of self-defense and justifiable homicide.

People there are much wrought up over the recent disorders, and three killings, clearly attributable to rowdy saloons. They now assert that they will have prohibition within a month. John Gow is an old engineer on the Pan-Handle, and leaves a wife and nine small children. He was regarded as one of the most competent men on the line, and not addicted to drink, though very drunk that night. Amos Thompson is a freight conductor, and leaves a wife and two children.

USE 'EM AS FERTILIZER.

A Pittsburg Chemist's Plans for Disposing of the Dead.

PITTSBURG, April 14.—Dr. George Hay, a chemist, advances a plan for the disposition of the dead bodies of human beings. He advocates an economic distribution of the remains, so that they may return to the elements as soon as possible, if for no other purpose than to furnish a fertilizer. Dr. Hay would pulverize the body with the aid of machinery. He says:

"The machines might be so contrived as to break the bones first in pieces of the size of a hen egg, next into fragments of the size of a marble, and the mangled and lacerated mass could next be reduced by means of chopping machines and steam power to mince meat."

"At this stage we have a homogeneous mixture of the entire body structures in the form of a pulpy mass of raw meat and bones. This mass should now be dried thoroughly by means of steam heat at a temperature of 250 degrees, or a pressure of thirty pounds to the inch, because, firstly, we wish to reduce the material to a condition convenient for handling, and secondly, we wish to disinfect it, as no infectious or contagious disease can retain its vitality at this temperature. Once in this condition it would command a good price for the purpose of a fertilizer."

Another method is by boiling in close vessels. The oil which would rise to the top may be drawn off to be converted into soap or lubricant. The residue may, by various simple processes, be converted into fertilizing material.

His final and last brilliant suggestion is the "distillation method." The bodies are to be placed in gas retorts and in about six hours will be converted into illuminating gas, water, ammonia, tar and animal charcoal. By subsequent distillations such substances as sulphate of ammonia, aniline colors and carbolic acid may be obtained. It is the process which finds most favor with the writer.

GRANT'S BIRTHDAY BANQUET.

Several Ex-Confederate Generals Invited to Participate.

NEW YORK, April 14.—Gen. W. T. Sherman, who is one of the committee in charge of the banquet at Delmonico's on April 27, to celebrate Gen. Grant's birthday, has invited to ex-Confederate Generals Longstreet, Mosby, Gordon, Buckner, Lee, Mahone and Johnson, the following letter:

"MY DEAR SIR—It has been determined to celebrate the birthday of Gen. U. S. Grant upon the 27th inst. by a banquet at Delmonico's, in this city. I write to ask the pleasure of your company upon that occasion. Time has delayed the affectionate regard which the people of all sections entertain for the virtues of this illustrious man, and it is fitting that those of us who knew him should set the example to those who are to follow, of thus annually doing honor to his memory. I am very truly yours, W. T. SHERMAN."

JUSTICE DEFEATED.

An Inhuman Father's Narrow Escape at Titusville, Pennsylvania.

TITUSVILLE, Pa., April 14.—George Starkweather, a wood chopper, sixty years of age, living near Grand Valley, narrowly escaped lynching Thursday. He was arrested Wednesday charged with committing rape on the eldest of his eleven children, a daughter fifteen years old. At the trial it was developed that he had been continuing the incestuous crime since the girl was twelve years old, under threats of instant death should she make it known. Starkweather's wife is the accuser. After the daughter's confession of the truth as to her condition the indignant citizens seized Starkweather, dragged him from the justice's office and had placed the rope around his neck when a sheriff's posse secured and removed him to Garland jail for safety.

Woman Elected by Mistake.

KANSAS CITY, April 14.—At the city election in Belleville last week many people voted for T. Robinson for councilman, thinking it was Aaron T. Robinson. When the votes were counted T. Robinson was declared to be elected, and every one was astonished when Aaron T. Robinson's wife, Tina, appeared to take the oath of office. Strenuous objection was offered, and a delegation has gone to Topeka to ask the attorney general to endeavor to have the election of the body set aside.

CONSUL GENERAL PHELAN

EXPRESSES HIS VIEWS OF THE FISHERIES TREATY.

He Says We are no Longer Fishing on Suffrance—The Canucks Will Never be Satisfied, but the Treaty Will Become Popular on This Side of the Line.

NEW YORK, April 14.—A Washington special says: United States Consul General Michael H. Phelan, of Halifax, N. S., is here en route to his home in St. Louis. In speaking of the recently concluded fisheries treaty he said to your correspondent:

"The advantages accruing to the United States under the provisions of the new treaty have been greatly underestimated. New grounds have been opened up to our fishermen, and all doubts removed as to our right to avail ourselves of them. We are no longer fishing on sufferance. Under the existing treaty we can only enter Canadian ports for wood, water, shelter and repairs. Even then we are subjected to a disagreeable espionage. Under the new contract we are liable for no pilotage dues, and at the same time enjoy the benefits of lighthouses and safeguards to navigation. Our vessels can no longer be seized upon the trumped up charge of 'hovering.'"

"We can now enter Canadian ports for fresh supplies, provisions, etc., saving the necessity for returning home in the midst of the fishing season. Our vessels can sell or tranship cargoes and can always enter the nearest port for anything they may lack. To my mind the Canadians have gained nothing. It may be said that the treaty might go further than it does, but it is certainly a vast improvement upon the existing agreement. While our fishermen may not be entirely satisfied it would be a serious matter, as they would quickly realize, should the senate reject the new convention."

"A convincing argument is the very general dissatisfaction expressed by Canadians with the provisions of this treaty. Without regard to party they are opposed to it. It is likely, however, to be ratified by those who are in duty bound to support the government. The Canadian fishermen, however, will never be satisfied with it, while the practical operations of its provisions will make it decidedly popular on this side of the line."

DESTRUCTIVE CONFLAGRATION.

A Maryland Village Almost Entirely Wiped Out By Fire.

CHESTERTOWN, Md., April 14.—The town of Massey's, a pretty little village in the upper part of Kent county, was almost entirely destroyed by fire yesterday, which started in a stable near the blacksmith's shop. The wind was very strong and bore the flaming particles of wood to the roofs of the adjoining houses. There was not sufficient water available in the town to quench even the burning stable, and the people were compelled to hold their hands while they saw their houses destroyed. One by one the cottages caught fire, blazed awhile and then fell in heaps of ruins until fourteen buildings had been consumed.

Among the business places burned are the stores of A. B. Marlsberger, George Ireland, Mr. Dixon and O. F. Hughey and the big hotel. With the exception of one small hotel, not a house is left in the town proper. Most of the families are without food and shelter. Some freight cars standing on a side-track were opened last night, and the villagers will dwell therein until they can procure other shelter. The loss is not estimated. Two churches, school house, railroad station and seven dwellings escaped. The heaviest loser is Dr. C. H. Massey, who lost three dwellings and two stores; not insured. Stephen Moyer lost heavily, but is insured.

A Mysterious Fire.

PITTSBURG, April 14.—At 10:30 o'clock last night fire was discovered in the basement of the Chronicle Telegraph building, Nos. 122 and 124 Fifth avenue. The damage was confined to the press room, stock room and stereotype room in the basement, and the business office on the first floor. The damage will not exceed $10,000; insured. The origin of the fire is a mystery. An unknown man was seen hastily leaving the building by the front door just previous to the discovery of the fire. This is the second time within a few years that the paper has suffered from the same cause. To-morrow's paper will be issued from the Dispatch office.

Sporting Notes.

An effort is being made to match Jack Dempsey and Pete McCoy for a ten-round glove fight.

Jack Ashton will be matched to fight Jake Kilrain if the latter shall agree to when he returns to this country.

Jack Fogarty has been arrested again at Pittsburg, and his fight with Joyce will probably be declared off.

Capt. Bogardus and W. T. Irwin shot a tie at one hundred birds at Abilene, Kan., Thursday. Each killed eighty.

The Cincinnati players are not satisfied with their defeat by the Detroiters, and will make up $1,000 to be played for against the Wolverines after the season closes next fall.

Thursday's ball: Cincinnati 8, Detroit 5; Chicago 2, St. Louis 1; Wheeling 2, Buffalo 0; Indianapolis 10, Toronto 4; Allegheny 8, Cleveland 2; Athletic 7, Philadelphia 1; Baltimore 12, Boston 3.

This One Cost Five Lives.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., April 14.—A construction train on the Kansas City, Memphis & Birmingham railroad was wrecked sixty miles west of here at 7:30 last evening. Four workmen were killed, one injured fatally and nine others seriously hurt. The train was backing at a high rate of speed and struck a cow and was derailed.

Big Robbery Rumored.

UTICA, N. Y., April 14.—It is reported that the St. Johnsville bank was robbed last night of $12,000.

SHOT HIS SWEETHEART'S BROTHER.

"Happy Bob" Van Brunt Dies on the Scaffold at Warsaw, New York.

WARSAW, N. Y., April 14.—"Happy Bob" Van Brunt, of the Salvation army, was hanged here 10:18 a. m. for the murder of Will Roy, brother of Eva Roy, whom Bob was courting at the time of the tragedy.

During the last hour or two of Van Brunt's life his spiritual advisers and Dr. Lusk were with him. At 10:12, when the priest had completed the services, Deputy Sheriffs Bradley and Wetherell, escorted Van Brunt through the corridor and out into the jail inclosure.

He prayed in almost inaudible tone and walked bravely up the steps to the scaffold. When all was ready the drop was pulled. The neck was broken, and the pulsation of the heart ceased in fourteen minutes. The body was cut down and placed in a neat cedar casket.

Wednesday evening Eva Roy called on Governor Hill in Albany and passionately besought him to commute Bob's sentence to imprisonment for life. The governor kindly went over the points in the case and tried to show her that there were no grounds for clemency and finally said that the law must take its course.

Miss Roy grew deathly pale at these words, and her head dropped and she fell in a faint. A physician was summoned and restoratives applied. It was an hour before she recovered. Looking about her in a dazed sort of way, she cried: "Poor Bob—poor Bob!" and sank back upon the sofa in another swoon. She was finally removed to the hospital completely broken down.

The crime which Van Brunt expiated with his life was committed at Castile, Wyoming county, on the night of October 6, 1886. Van Brunt, who was a lieutenant in the Salvation army, met Eva Roy at Warsaw, and became desperately enamored of her. He gave up the army, and having secured work in Castile removed there. He boarded at Miss Roy's home, and became engaged to her. The frequent visits there of her half-brother, Will Roy, aroused his jealousy.

The evening of the murder Will Roy was at the house and sat up late with Eva, as he was going away on the midnight train. Van Brunt retired early, leaving the brother and sister alone in the parlor. Later on he heard talking in a low tone in the parlor and becoming suspicious he came down stairs. Finding Eva in her night dress sitting in earnest conversation, Van Brunt told the girl that she should be in bed. Eva made some flippant reply and renewed her whispered conversation with Roy. This seemed to have maddened Van Brunt, for he drew a revolver and fired at Roy with fatal effect. He returned to her room, informed Fred Roy that he had shot his brother, and making no effort to escape was taken into custody.

He was tried and convicted of murder in the first degree and sentenced to be hanged April 15, 1887. The case was appealed to the general term which affirmed the decision of the lower court. His counsel next took the case to the court of appeals with the same result.

Another Execution.

FERGUS FALLS, Minn., April 14.—Nels Olsen Holmgren, was hanged at 2 o'clock. The scaffold was erected in the inclosure adjoining the jail and surrounded by a fence sixteen feet high.

The crime for which he suffered the extreme penalty of the law was the murder of Miss Lilly Fields, whom he butchered on May 28 last, and whose body he fed to the hogs on her brother's farm.

NO MORE LIQUOR ON SUNDAY.

The Owen Bill Passes the Ohio Senate—To Adjourn Monday.

COLUMBUS, O., April 14.—The saloons of Ohio will at once take notice that they are to be closed up on Sunday. The Owen bill has become a law, and goes into effect when signed. In the senate Mack's amendment to it was defeated—yeas 8, nays 21. A vote on the bill was then taken and resulted: Yeas 25, nays 2. Wallace and Zimmerman, two Democrats, were the only ones voting no. The four Hamilton county senators were present, but refused to vote, though their names were called several times. Rathbone also declined to vote.

A discussion of the bill arose from a motion of Senator Cole, Republican, to postpone further consideration until next January. He said it was a Republican measure and that the Republican party would pass the bill in its own time.

Senator Massie said the majority did not intend that the Democrats should force the passage of the bill, and that the Republicans proposed to pass it then, and the Democrats could vote for it or not as they wished.

Senator Mahaffy made a very eloquent speech in favor of the bill, announcing that, even as a Democrat, he was in favor of temperance legislation, and claiming that the Democrats were foremost in it.

When the vote was announced there was loud applause.

An attempt is to be made to break the bill in a test case to be brought at once. There is no doubt of an adjournment Monday.

Child Attacked by Vicious Dogs.

NEW YORK, April 14.—A crumbling canal boat at South Cay, Jersey City, has as an occupant a garbage-gatherer called "Laughing Jack," who companions are four big and vicious dogs. Thursday afternoon Tommy Malone, aged five years, was walking on the beach, when the brutes one after another leaped from the canal boat to the ground and made for him. The child uttered a cry of terror, and the next instant was thrown by the brutes, which fought over him as if he were a bone. To this fact he owes his life. Help came, and the boy was rescued, but in a badly lacerated condition. The dogs were afterward shot.

A Shot in Time.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., April 14.—News has reached here of a desperate and fatal fight which occurred near Rome, an out-of-the-way place in Covington county, Alabama, a day or two ago, between two colored men, Hill Johnson and Mack Andrews. Johnson attacked Andrews and a white man named Frank Douglass with an ax. He knocked Douglass down and was in the act of braining him when Andrews fired upon him with a shotgun, killing him on the spot and saving the life of Douglass, who was his employer.

RATES OF SUBSCRIPTION.

THE DAILY BULLETIN will be delivered to any part of the city at 6 cents a week, or one year for $3.

THE DAILY BULLETIN to any postoffice in the United States, postage prepaid, at twenty-five cents per month or three dollars per year.

SATURDAY EVE., APRIL 14, 1888.

The "kid ticket" won in the town election at Dover a few days ago. Brother Havens, of the News, is one of the new councilmen.

To Joseph F. Brodrick, Agent: After having been insured in the Equitable Life for twenty years I have to-day received their check for near $7,000. This company is possessed of both wealth and honor. EMERY WHITAKER.

A LETTER from Eldorado, Kan., says: "Saul and James Stewart, from Dry Run, near Aberdeen, O., have lived in Greenwood County for many years, and have both grown wealthy by farming and stock raising. Saul Stewart lives in a fine country residence that cost him about $10,000."

CHRISTIAN CHURCH—W. S. Priest, pastor, will preach to-morrow at 11 a. m., subject: "Lessons from Spring." No services at night, as the pastor will lead the ladies' meeting for the Baptists at the First Presbyterian Church. Young people's meeting at the latter church, beginning at 7:30 p. m.

CYNTHIANA is all tangled up in her municipal government. Two sets of councilmen are claiming to be the legitimate body, and some of the people are at a loss to know whether they have any government at all or not. A lively contest is being held to-day to decide a contested election for councilman in one of the wards.

THE Augusta Republican says that "at no time since work was commenced on the new railroad has the same bustle been manifested." A big lot of ties has been ordered delivered at that place. Officers of the St. Lawrence say the contractors are showing unusual activity at a number of points below here, completing the little grading that remains to be done.

THE BULLETIN is indebted to Congressman James B. McCreary for a copy of his recent speech in favor of a conference at Washington of the Nations of North, Central and South America to encourage reciprocal commercial relations and promote arbitration. It is acknowledged on every hand to be one of the most able speeches delivered at the present session.

ROWAN County seems to be doing very well of late. Peace prevails at Morehead. The better class of people, it is said, have come to the front and are enforcing the laws, especially that as to local option. The "removal" of Craig Tolliver and his gang marked the turning in Rowan's history, and the county will no doubt get along quietly and peaceably from now on, if the good people who have control of affairs are let alone and receive the proper encouragement.

THERE isn't quite as much said of late about the boom in the "mountain counties" of Kentucky, but that shouldn't be taken as evidence that the aforesaid boom has died out. Eastern capitalists still have their eyes on the undeveloped riches of that section, and are closing in on all the good things. A few days ago a party of them bought the mineral rights—all minerals and coals—on 50,000 acres of Morgan County land for $25,000.

The Revival Meetings.

Mr. Hale will preach this afternoon at 3 o'clock in the lecture room of the First Presbyterian Church and to-night at 7:30 at the court house. To-morrow the services will be as follows: At 9:30 Mr. Hale will speak to the Sunday school children; at 11 he will preach at the court house. At 3:30 p. m. he will preach at the Lewisburg Baptist Church, and again at the court house at 7:30 p. m.

The sermon to-morrow night will be to men only. No ladies will be admitted to the court house at that hour. This is done to give the men, who cannot attend during the week, a chance to hear the sermon, as many were crowded out last Sunday night. The ladies' meeting will be held at the First Presbyterian Church at the same hour and no men will be admitted to that meeting. Rev. W. S. Priest has kindly consented to lead the ladies' meeting. Both these meetings will begin at 7:30 o'clock and close about 9:00 o'clock so that gentlemen who bring ladies' can meet them at the church at the close of the services. Everybody invited to these meetings.

A Step in the Right Direction.

The bill pending in the Legislature to provide for a county tax in aid of the public schools is a step in the right direction. In Kentucky the per cent. of the State tax allowed for school purposes is larger perhaps than in any other State in the Union. But it is not large enough to give us the schools we ought to have. A county tax has been needed for years to supplement the fund received from the State.

The bill provides that on petition of one hundred citizens the County Judge shall submit to a vote of the people the question of levying a tax not to exceed 15 cents on the $100 for school purposes.

Such a tax should be levied. Mason County is rich enough to afford better schools, and for a longer term than she now enjoys.

Sunday School Convention.

A Sunday school convention, comprising the counties of Mason, Fleming and Robertson, will be held in the Christian Church at Mill Creek May 35. A. McLean, of Cincinnati, Secretary of the Foreign Christian Missionary Society, will be present and speak on Saturday. A. C. Hoppins, State Sunday school Evangelist, and others will be present. Ample provision is being made to entertain all who go. Conveyances will meet all at Helena Station.

W. S. PRIEST.

MAJOR HENRY T. STANTON, son of Judge and Mrs. R. H. Stanton, of this city, delivered a lecture a few evenings since in the Fourth and Chester Street Presbyterian Church at Louisville under the auspices of the Kentucky Ladies' Indian Association. The Daily Times says the speaker entertained and instructed his large audience for an hour and a half. Major Stanton spent seven months as a Government Commissioner for the allotment of lands in severalty among the Cayuse, Walla-Walla and Umatilla Indians in Oregon. The lecturer has been favorably impressed by the character of the Pacific Coast Indians, and took strong ground against the prevalent idea that all the good Indians are dead.

The lecture was interspersed with recitals of many interesting personal experiences among the Northwestern tribes, and at its close a number of new names were added to the membership of the Association.

JUDAH A. E. COLE returned from Frankfort yesterday morning and resumed his official duties in the Circuit Court shortly after his arrival. He is being warmly congratulated over his complete exoneration by the Legislature.

Don't Let It Escape, It May be Your Turn.

With well known regularity the 215th Monthly Grand Quarterly drawing of The Louisiana State Lottery took place at New Orleans, on March 13th, 1888, under the usual supervision of Gen'l G. T. Beauregard of La., and Jubal A. Early of Va. No. 51,570 drew the first grand prize of $300,000. It was sold in twentieths at $1 each, sent to M. A. Dauphin, New Orleans, La., and was paid one to Fred Hofer, Taylor Ridge, Ill.; one to E. H. Woodson, 1525 Main St., Lynchburg, Va.; one to Bank of Commerce, of St. Louis, Mo.; one to a depositor, through Wells, Fargo & Co., San Francisco, Cal.; one to R. A. How a Dying Child Was Saved!

CICERO, HAMILTON CO., IND., Sept. 19, 1887.—The following is a true account of what your S. S. S. has done for our little daughter, Hazel, now four years old. When 12 months old a lump appeared on her heel, which slowly grew larger. The family physician thought it was caused by a piece of broken glass or needle, but failed to bring anything to light. The child became feebler all the time, seeming to lose the use of her leg, and finally quit walking entirely. The middle finger and thumb of her hand became enlarged, the flesh becoming hard. The hip joints became involved, so that when seventeen months old she could not stand, having lost the use of leg and arm. Partial curvature of the spine also followed. The nervous system was wrecked, muscles contracted, and there was general wasting of flesh and muscle. At eighteen months of age she was placed under the treatment of a prominent physician of Boston, Mass., but at the end of ten months she had declined to such a degree that she was in a dying condition. This was in April, 1886. We took the child away not knowing what to do. In this dreadful dilemma we were over-persuaded by friends to try "one bottle" of SWIFT'S SPECIFIC, which we did, and before it had all been taken we saw a change for the better in her symptoms. We kept it up, and have done so to this day, and will keep it up, if the Lord will, for many days to come, for it has brought our dying Hazel to life, to vigor, to strength and health again. The ashen hue of her cheeks has changed to a rosy tint. She is able to walk anywhere, her languor and melancholy have passed away, and she is now a blithe, cheerful, happy romping child. Should you wish to increase your testimonials of proof of the virtue of S. S. S., our names and what we have said is but a portion of what we owe to you, should you wish to use them.

Kindly yours,
BEN. F. SWIFT.

BOYTON, THE SWIMMER.

Little Late in Arriving, but Greeted by a Surging Mass of Humanity. Incidents of His Trip.

Captain Paul Boyton, the noted swimmer, was a little late in arriving last evening, but he "got there"—or, more correctly, he got here all the same. The "virandy" in front of the city was thronged with people at 6 o'clock, the hour he was expected to make his appearance, but they looked in vain for the Captain to round the point. The swimmer came not. However, the steamer Fashion, which arrived at dusk, brought word from him. They had passed him below Cabin Creek. The news gladdened the heart of the small boy who was out in force, and a cheer went up from the crowd. At last, a little after 7 o'clock, a few flashes from the Captain's lantern a mile or so above town betokened his approach. This was greeted with more cheers from the small boy, and some of the large boys joined in the yelling. The crowd on the "virandy" increased. Shortly afterwards a light suddenly shot several hundred feet into the air, followed by the explosion of a bomb, and then more fire-works—a few sky-rockets—and more cheers from the crowd, and the Captain rounded in below the wharf and waded ashore in his heavy rubber suit. A surging mass of humanity, men and boys, black and white, covered the grade, and it was next to impossible almost for the swimmer to work his way through the throng. Although he is accustomed to such receptions, he doesn't enjoy them at all, and he took refuge in the Grand View, the first hotel he could reach.

A representative of the BULLETIN called a few hours later and found him busily engaged drying his clothes. He was dressed in a suit of underwear only. His outer clothing and another suit of heavier underwear were spread out before a fire that blazed brightly in the grate, while his rubber suit, his paddle, his little boat "Baby Mine," and various other articles were scattered about over the room. "You must excuse my appearance," he remarked, with a pleasant greeting, "but you know I don't carry much of a wardrobe with me on these trips. I'm sorry I didn't reach Maysville before dark, but I had to pull against a strong breeze from Manchester down. I haven't forgotten the clever manner in which you Maysville people treated me on my other trip in 1879."

"Yes, the Captain has been talking about Maysville and what a clever set of fellows you all are ever since we left Wheeling," chimed in Mr. Thomas S. Fullwood, sporting editor of the Pittsburg Leader, who is accompanying Mr. Boyton on his trip. "He has been particularly anxious to reach here in daylight, but we couldn't make it."

Captain Boyton is a man of powerful build. He is thirty-nine years old, about six feet tall, of handsome figure, affable manners and is a pleasant talker. His face, the only part of his person exposed while in the water, is badly sunburned. Glycerine or cocoa-butter had been applied to it last night, and it looked "as red as a beet and as slick as a peeled onion." The reflection from the rays of the sun on the water has almost cooked the flesh and the skin was peeling off in spots. This is the greatest trouble he has to contend with, but his trip to Evansville will be completed in a few days. His present journey is intended as a course of training previous to his joining Barnum & Bailey's big show April 30. He weighed one hundred and eighty-pounds when he left Wheeling April 6th. Since then he has lost twenty pounds.

The Captain resumed his journey shortly after six o'clock this morning. Representatives of the BULLETIN accompanied him a few miles down the river. The swimmer's body is encased in an airtight rubber suit fitting together at the waist and about the neck and head and leaving nothing but part of his face exposed. His position in the water is on the back, feet first, body slightly bended, with head and part of the feet above the surface. The bent position of his neck would prove very tiresome but this is avoided by means of a rope looped about the neck and held taut by the feet. In this position he grasps an eight-foot paddle in the middle and begins his monotonous dip, dip, dip, dip, first one end of the paddle in the water then the other. He makes from one hundred to one hundred and ten strokes a minute, 6,000 an hour. In his journey from Portsmouth yesterday he made about 75,000 strokes with his paddle. His little boat, "Baby Mine," thirty inches long, is attached to his suit by a cord and trails along after him.

His career over the world has been an eventful one, full of interesting incidents that would fill volumes. The BULLETIN representatives left him this morning puffing away on a fragrant cigar.

The Captain writes his name Boyton and not Boynton. He will go as far as New Richmond to-day, and reach Cincinnati to-morrow afternoon.

The mysterious disappearance of John P. Vance, of Manchester, noticed one day this week, is still giving his relatives and friends great uneasiness. PRACTICAL CO-OPERATION

GENERAL SECRETARY LITCHMAN
ISSUES A CIRCULAR

And Advocates Its Distribution Through Stores Rather Than Protection Through Factories—The Brewers' Troubles About the Same—Labor News.

PHILADELPHIA, April 14.—C. H. Litchman, general secretary of the Knights of Labor, has issued a circular to the members of the order outlining a plan for practical co-operation.

"Co-operation," the circular says, "begins and seems to succeed better in distribution through stores rather than in production through factories. Following out this apparently natural law of co-operative effort, we believe it possible, at once and without capital, to establish in and through the order the grandest co-operative effort the world has ever seen."

Mr. Litchman in a brief outline of the plan, then suggests that manufacturers and co-operative establishments, "members of the order," file with the general secretary a complete price catalogue of the goods they produce; that these price lists be classified and printed and sent to every local assembly, and that each assembly appoint an agent to handle orders for the goods. The scheme also provides for a fee from each establishment entering into the agreement; the stamping of the makers name upon the goods to guarantee their quality, etc.

The circular concludes: "The gain would be an immense concentration of patronage upon goods produced by our own people, quality guaranteed, prices moderate, elimination as far as possible of middlemen and the substitution of a co-operative for a competitive system."

Mr. Litchman invites discussion of the scheme by the various assemblies of the order.

New York Brewers.

NEW YORK, April 14.—The situation with regard to the threatened lockout of the journeymen brewers of this city remains unchanged. The brewery proprietors say that the lockout will be Monday. They expect to have no trouble in securing men to fill the places of the old hands and have already engaged a number of men. The journeymen are hopeful and say that the bosses cannot fill their places satisfactorily. The trouble arises from the refusal of the boss brewers to sign an obnoxious contract drawn up by their men for the ensuing year.

Chicago Brewers.

CHICAGO, April 14.—The situation is very little changed. Nearly all the brewers had succeeded in hiring some new men, but none of the establishments which were stopped by the strike have resumed operations. The bosses say the association has advertised for experienced brewers in Milwaukee, Cincinnati, St. Louis and other places, and it was only a question of time when enough skilled hands would be secured to fill all the vacant places.

Burlington Lawlessness.

CRESTON, Iowa, April 14.—The lawlessness of a week ago was renewed Wednesday night, and there were a number of acts of violence in and about the Burlington yards. An ex-fireman named Donahue assaulted a working fireman named Heffen. A switch engine, while pushing the Denver train, was stoned and windows broken in the engine cab and dining car. Stones and brickbats were also thrown through a window of Superintendent Brown's private car about 11 o'clock, Mr. Brown being in the car at the time.

Some freight engines were stoned later in the night, and windows broken from their cabs. No one was hurt. All efforts to capture the offenders have been fruitless. Extra city police are kept on duty all night.

Contributions Asked.

PHILADELPHIA, April 14.—The executive board of Knights of Labor miners, has issued a circular to the friends of organized labor asking for contribution to assist in paying of the indebtedness incurred in assisting the striking miners in the Lehigh coal regions, and to assist some seven hundred miners, who, since the collapse of the strike, have been "blacklisted."

THE BALD KNOBBERS.

Dave Walker to be Executed—The Sentence of the Others.

ST. LOUIS, April 14.—The jury in the case of David Walker, leader of the Bald Knobbers, on trial at Ozark, Mo., returned a verdict of murder in the first degree. James Matthews, William Stanley, Amos Jones and C. C. Simmons, the preacher, were then sentenced by the court, three of them having pleaded to murder in the second degree. Stanley and Jones got twenty-one years in the penitentiary; Simmons, fifteen years, and Matthews was released on $1,000 bail. Stanley took his sentence very hard and told the judge that he was very severe, and Simmons made a very pathetic appeal to the court. It is said that nobody believes that Simmons is morally guilty of crime.

A Bridegroom Disappears.

WINCHESTER, O., April 14.—A big sensation is vibrating through the marrow bones of the people of Maywood, Adams county, over a wedding that did not come off last night. John J. Lacy, aged twenty-five, the bridegroom, mysteriously disappeared. Lucy Harvey, the pretty bride elect, is in mourning. The relatives on both sides are distracted. Lacy has been an upright young man, and is considered very wealthy.

The president has appointed Frederick R. Couderc, of New York, Franklin MacVeigh, of Illinois; M. A. Hanna, of Ohio, and James A. Savage, of Nebraska, as government directors of the Union Pacific Railway company.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., April 14.—There were 8,000 visitors at Bessemer's first anniversary yesterday. Speeches were made by Messrs. Talliaferro, of Birmingham; Colyar, of the Nashville American; Hudson, of Louisiana, and Burke, of the Times-Democrat. All conservatively favored protection for Alabama's greatest iron and steel industries.

Died From His Injuries.

MADISON, Ind., April 14.—William Fowell, who had his leg badly crushed and sustained internal injuries by a large piece of timber falling upon him, died from the effects of his injuries at midnight. He was a young man, married about three months ago.

Eloped to Cincinnati.

PARIS, Ky., April 14.—Mit Jacob and Miss Emma McLeod, daughter of James Leod, of Hutchinson precinct, eloped to Cincinnati last evening and were married.
